How do I view and prove my EU Settled Status?

www.migrantcentreni.org

On your computer, tablet or a smartphone go to:

<https://www.gov.uk/view-prove-immigration-status>

Use this service to:

- view your settled or pre-settled status
- get a share code to prove your status to others, for example employers
- update your personal details, for example your passport number or email address
- check what rights you have in the UK, for example the right to work or claim benefits

What you'll need?

- ID number: details of the identity document you used when you applied (your passport, national identity card, or biometric residence card or permit)
- DOB: your date of birth
- One time code: access to the mobile number or email address you used when you applied - you'll be sent a code for logging in

Your status

Status

Name and surname

You have settled status, also known as indefinite leave to remain.

Details
You can live, work and study in the UK, and access public funds and services.

There is no limit on how long you can stay in the UK.

Read about your rights with settled or pre-settled status.

If your name is spelled wrong or your photo is not correct, contact the EU Settlement Resolution Centre.

Prove your status

If you need to prove your status, for example, to help you get hospital treatment, council housing, or for work in the UK, you can do this online.

Prove your status to someone

Until 31 December 2020, you can still show your identity documents to prove your rights in the UK.

Update your details

To access your online status, your contact details and identity document must be up-to-date.

If you get a new identity document, or change your name, number, or email, you must update these.

A green success message box with a white checkmark icon. The text reads: 'Your update address request has been sent. New address request text...'. Below the box is a section titled 'What happens next' with explanatory text: 'You will receive an email and text message to confirm we have received your request. We will check the information you have given to make sure there are no issues. This usually takes around 7 days. You will then receive another email and text message to confirm if the update has been completed.'

Why are you proving your status?

I want to:

- work in the UK
- get hospital treatment
- claim benefits or tax credits
- get homelessness assistance or council housing
- open a bank or building society account
- get a loan or credit card or

- another reason

Continue

You have to choose the reason for proving the status. If you choose to prove that you have the right to work in the UK the system will generate a code for you. You will then be asked to provide an email address for a person requesting the proof. That person will receive an email from UKVI and will have to enter the code that was generated for you to see your status online.
